About Kirunda

He is a veteran Ugandan politician and senior presidential advisor to the President of Uganda, Yoweri Museveni. He has variously served as the Minister for Relief and Social Rehabilitation, Internal Affairs and as Deputy Prime Minister of Uganda.

While in India he was treasurer of the African Students Association which had among its members Bingu wa Mutharika, John Malecela and John Mataure.

Kivejinja returned to Uganda in 1962. Since the overthrow of the Milton Obote regime in 1986, Kivejinja has served in several important posts under President Yoweri Museveni. In 1986, he was appointed Minister of Relief and Social Rehabilitation. He has since served as Minister of Internal Affairs and Third Deputy Prime Minister of Uganda. Since August 2012 he has been made Senior Presidential Advisor for Internal Affairs to President Museveni.

Kivejinja is the author of Uganda: The Crisis of Confidence
