

Dr. Miria Rukoza Koburunga Matembe

- Born 28 August 1953
- Schools Attended She obtained an Honorary Doctor of Laws (LL.D) from University of Victoria in 2007
- Family She is Married to Neke-mia Matembe and they have four sons.

Miria Matembe (L) addresses journalists in Kampala recently.

Emphasising a point on International women's day

Lead To Serve

During a talk show

About Matembe

She is a former member of the Pan-African Parliament from Uganda and she was chairperson of the Committee on Rules, Privileges and Discipline a permanent committee of the Pan-African Parliament.

In June 2006 she became a Reagan-Fascell Democracy Fellow with the National Endowment for Democracy.

She has been a strong proponent for and an advocate of women's rights in Uganda. for over two decades beginning in 1989 she was a member of Uganda's parliament. she worked in Ugandan government as minister for ethics and integrity from 1998 to 2003, after which time she became an MP with the Pan-African Parliament representing Uganda.

In 1995 she was a member of the Constitutional Court that created the Ugandan Constitution. She was the former chairperson of Action for Development, Uganda's leading women's advocacy organization, an organization she cofounded.

She has been a lecturer on law and English at the Chartered Institute of Bankers also in Kampala. A lawyer by profession, Ms. Matembe is also the author of several articles and a book, Miria Matembe: Gender, Politics, and Constitution Making in Uganda, on women in politics.

For more information visit the Wikipedia insight and Google page